Career Accountability

April 24 2020

Accountability and Commitment

Taking accountability for your work is one of the most important steps to take when advancing your career. It does not even have to be for when you hold yourself accountable for your actions, you show your the world that you're responsible and motivated in your job and totality of life. Many people must and have to be left behind for the success of you. Not for you being the success of others. Its a weight, and no time to wait.

Taking Leadership in Accountability

Accountability occurs when individuals reliably deliver on their commitments, showing others they can be trusted to do what they say they'll do. Leaders further demonstrate accountability by taking responsibility for the outcomes of their actions and decisions and successfully transforming effort into results

Good Constitution

When thinking about the term accountability definitively, it is taking or being assigned responsibility for something that you have done or something you are supposed to do. An example of accountability is when an employee admits an error he made while leading on a project.

Bringing Yourself to Management of Self

- Create a Personal Mission Statement.
- Micro-Goals is where it is at. Micro wins lead to Macro.
- Use Lists Wisely.
- Make Yourself Accountable.
- Celebrate rewards with small victories.
- Do One Task at a Time. Step by step, you will master your projects.
- Emphasize Your Strengths, Improve Your Weaknesses.
- Your time and what you do is SUPER VALUABLE.

People and YOUR success. It matters!

People can get accustomed to just hanging around your life, but this is not wise. Your life and career is in your hands. You take charge of it, you will not be sorry. In life you may have heard time and time again you can't count on anyone or anything to push you forward. God be for us all! Is friends and family that selfish , shallow , self consumed and undeserving .The answer usually is yes all the above. Moving forward no matter what is the key. Gifts, skills, abilities, and talents have to be utilized so that ideas can be put together working for the good.

Instead of blaming other people for failures, the best bet would be to own them, and next is to improve on those mistakes. Be in the mindset of entrepreneurship and promotion. Think about what are the next steps to greatness for your path, is it a certain class or course you need to take ?

These are questions that people think about everyday, you be the change you want to see in your life, as hard as that sounds it is doable. Champion your life ,don't give up . It may look impossible now ,but it's just an outthink solution of a problem away from millions being made toward a better life. Remember, not everyone is going to be happy for you! It's a part of how success is. People are competitive and try to outdo each other all the time . Though it can be annoying to some, be the best YOU that YOU can be . It is hard and very hard dealing with people how they view themselves with worth. Do not wait on people go get what YOU know that you deserve for your full and complete life.
